

Viruses, Bacteria, Protists, and Fungi ▪ 9.1 Review and Reinforce

Viruses

Understanding Main Ideas

Answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper.

1. Viruses are considered to be nonliving. How are viruses similar to living organisms? How are they different?
2. How are viruses similar to parasites?
3. How do hidden viruses differ from active viruses?
4. In the diagram below, identify the two structural parts of the virus. Explain the function of each part.

Building Vocabulary

Write a definition for each of the following terms on the lines below.

5. virus

6. bacteriophage

7. parasite

8. host

9. vaccine
